LAST DAY

IN THE COLBERN ROAD
DIRECTORY

Please look over the sheets on the table in the foyer to see if your address/phone/e-mail/kids is current. If not, please make your changes directly to these sheets. The new directory will be going to the printer soon. Call/text Brenda Eggert with questions or if you know someone who didn't get to see the sheets but you know their details have changed, 816-716-1642.

Donations Needed

Sister Cathy Alley and Sister Rose Williams, from Jonesport, ME, had their house burn down this spring. They did not have insurance and are trying to rebuild. Cathy received some quotes this week to complete the framing, roof, interior walls, and siding. This will get them back in the house and there will be some additional expenses to get it fully functional but this initial cost was estimated to her at $80,000. They have $21,000 in cash that has been donated and/or raised from fundraisers from the Saints in Maine and elsewhere. This means they need about $60,000 more for this project. They think they can finish the interior slowly as they have money to do so but if they raise more than $60,000 this will accelerate their ability to completely finish and furnish the house.

Feel free to share this information. They would appreciate any help that we can give them. Checks can be payable to: Cathy Alley, 27 Jerrolds Place, Apt 10, Machias, ME 04654. Or, write in "Maine" on the "other" line on your church envelope.

Any loose change received in the offering plate through September 14, will also be sent to Cathy and Rose.

KID'S PAGE

WALL OF JERICO

God told Joshua that the city of Jericho would be delivered into his hands. Joshua's priests were to march in front of the ark blowing trumpets made from rams' horns. On the seventh day, Joshua's men marched around Jericho seven times and the wall collapsed. Joshua told his men to spare Rahab. Joshua's army was to stay away from the devoted things, for these things were sacred to the Lord.
